

Dr. Lowe Discusses Student-Athlete Advisors, LLC on News 12 Connecticut's "Education Notebook"

Dr. Paul R. Lowe will be interviewed by host Amelia Wilson on New 12 Connecticut: Education Notebook. Helping high student-athletes to become recruited will be discussed.

Saturday, August 14 and Sunday, August 15
Check your local cable listing for times

Dr. Lowe, one of the leading independent college admissions counselors in the country, is founder and CEO of Pinnacle Educational Center and Student Athlete Advisors, LLC.

Student Athlete Advisors, LLC is a sports marketing and athletic placement firm that helps high school student-athletes through its knowledge of the college athletic recruitment and college admissions processes become noticed, evaluated and recruited by colleges.

Student Athlete Advisors, LLC creates a winning game plan for student-athletes and their parents in the competitive athletic recruiting process.

SAA goals:

- (1) Help student-athletes understand the steps they need to take to maximize their recruiting potential.
- (2) Help student-athletes obtain athletic scholarships.
- (3) Help student-athletes select a college that matches their academic and athletic interests.

Pinnacle Educational Center is a wholly-owned subsidiary of 14-year of BHA Education Consultants and provides college and graduate school admissions advising, career advising and life coaching services